Risk Classification

The Fund is suitable for investors who take medium- to long-term views. Prior to investment in the Fund, the investor shall undergo a client suitability assessment procedure to determine whether the Fund is appropriate for him considering his investment objective, risk tolerance, preferences and experience. The Fund's yield, net asset value, and total return may fluctuate as a result of interest rate movements and the changes in credit quality of the investments. On redemption of shares, an investor may receive an amount less than the original amount of the investment. Liquidity risk also needs to be taken into account.

BPI-Philam Peso Bond Fund Market Commentary

The BPI Government Bond Index returned -0.18% in December as Philippine government bond yields rose by an average of 14 basis points (bps). Yields moved up as market participants tempered their policy rate cut expectations as US central bank officials projected fewer rate cuts in 2025. Average daily trading volume for the month fell from Php36.1 billion in November to Php32.1 billion in December, with most trades still concentrated in 5-year and 1-year securities. For the month of December, foreign investors were net sellers of Php26.1 billion, pulling the full-year 2024 total net inflow to Php56.3 billion.

The Bureau of the Treasury (BTr) held its only FXTN auction for the month on December 10, offering Php15 billion of FXTN 10- 72 (9.1 years) which was fully awarded at an average yield of 5.89%.

November headline inflation rose to 2.5% year-on-year (YoY) from 2.3% YoY in October, in line with market expectations. The pick-up in inflation was driven mainly by faster food inflation due to adverse weather conditions. A series of typhoons swept through the Philippines in late-October to November, which impacted local food prices, particularly meat, fish, and vegetables.

Risk Warning: Past performance is not indicative of future results. Our investment management services relate to a variety of investments, each of which can fluctuate in value. The value of portfolios we manage may fall as well as rise, and the investor may not get back the full amount originally invested. The investment risks vary between different types of instruments. For example, for investments involving exposure to a currency other than that in which the portfolio is denominated, changes in the rate of exchange may cause the value of investments, and consequently the value of the portfolio, to go up or down. In the case of a higher volatility portfolio the loss on realization or cancellation may be very high (including total loss of investment), as the value of such an investment may fall suddenly and substantially. In making an investment decision, prospective investors must rely on their own examination of the merits and risks involved. Disclaimer: Unless otherwise noted, all information contained herein is sourced from BPI AIA* internal data.
